

Benefits considerations for globally mobile employees

Optimize expatriate medical and business traveler programs with KPMG Benefits Services

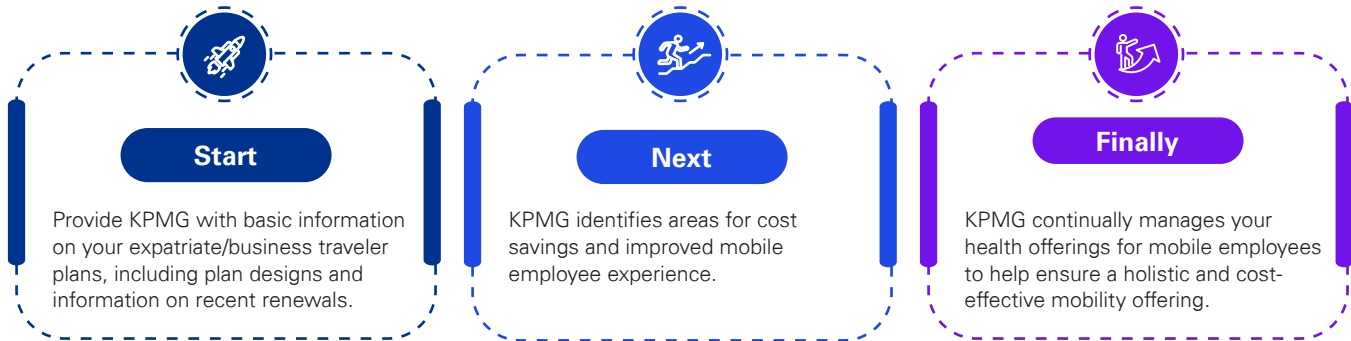

- Are the costs of your expatriate health plans increasing significantly year after year?
- Do you feel like your expatriate health offerings are simply “standard”?
- Are you looking for ways to enhance the mobile employee experience?
- Are you looking for synergies in your mobility vendor landscape?

If the answer to any of these questions is “Yes!,” then you are not alone! Expatriate health plans are often overlooked from a strategic perspective, providing an opportunity to enhance the program with a refreshed focus.

Developing a benefits program that meets the needs of mobile employees, is cost effective and compliant, and reflects organizational reward philosophies can be very challenging. KPMG can help manage all aspects of a multinational benefits program—inside the US, globally, and for globally mobile employees.

A leading experience...
Our thorough approach to mobility programs can help improve your employees’ experience while identifying cost mitigation opportunities. Traditional benefits consultants are not typically familiar with the intricacies of globally mobile employees’ needs, but KPMG benefits specialists are fully integrated into the mobility offering. Furthermore, expatriate health insurers are eager to work with KPMG to help provide a strategic and efficient mobility solution.
